IN AND OUT OF THE POOL

DECEMBER SWIMMERS OF THE MONTH

SANJANA SARAVANAN For the amount of time she has been swimming, Sanjana is well above the curve and has great potential. Her coach says she listens to instructions and then does her best to correct what she's working on. She is an ideal swimmer to coach and an asset to the squad. An 8th grader at Twality Middle School, Sanjana loves swimming for the fun and excitement of racing and competition. Away from the pool she likes reading, baking and playing the violin and piano.

EVAN CARLSON Always giving 100% in practice, Evan is becoming a much stronger swimmer. His coach says his consistent attendance in practice and his solid work ethic have helped Evan make huge improvements dropping time in his 50 Free and his 100 Back. Evan is a 5th grader at Markham Elementary in Portland and likes swimming for the competition and the joy of success. Outside of swimming Evan likes soccer, video games, Legos and playing the violin.

KALANIE THOMAS Kalandie has been with LOSC for only two months but has caught on quickly to improve her strokes. Her coach says she is a joy to coach because she is hard working and eager to push herself to the next level. A 4th grader at Uplands Elementary, Kalandie loves swimming and the competition at meets. When not in the pool Kalandie likes to sing, dance and hang out with her friends and family.
